“ Our kids Beth Ann and Patressa were in elementary school together near where Bev and Clarence lived. Bev and I worked together at Shasta Beverages, I worked days and she worked midnights. I had to be at work before my kids left for school, so Bev would drive by my house after work each morning pick them up and give them a ride to her house a short walk from the school. How grateful they were to not have to walk in the cold and snow nearly a mile. All the years I knew Bev, I do not ever think I saw her angry with anyone. She loved to play Bingo and was very good at it. Sorry I did not make time to see you last time I was in Columbus. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ When uncle and bev first got married , I was around 11 I think. Bev kinda treated me as a young adult. It was really cool for me . She always had a snack time , the four girls,, Lisa, Ericka, Angie, and BethAnn., and me!! Kool aid and cheese puffs!! Every now and again I still have cheese puffs. She was a good lady. It was a BLENDED family and she did awesome. I love you Aunt Bev.
