“ I met Beth 31 yrs ago. After her inlaws passed they moved in next to us. Found out we we're born in the same Hospital in LA County General Hospital. So cool that I was born in 57 n she came along in 64. That was a bond that no other friend had. She was Beautiful inside n out. Everyone Loved her n she Loved everyone. Never complained about anything except didnt have a green thumb. So we went to work on her flower bed. I'm still crying bcuz she was the glue that held her family together. She was the Best Friend n lil Sis anyone cld ever have. Her Love was so Large it showed through all who knew her. RIP My lil Sis.

“ Man I can't believe she is gone I'm going to miss her so damn much. and beth was the best mom/friend we have alot of good memories and beth and my dad are the best. and last night when I was laying down when I would close my eyes all I can see was mom and when I got up in the middle of the night I seen someone at the foot of my bed and ik it was mom but when I looked again there was nothing but ik it was mom standing there .and ik it's sad that the last day I talk to her was on mother's day and then 8 days later she was gone to be with god and all the other family members we losted but she is in a better place now because she is no longer in pain and she can sit up there and watch over us. But I just want mom to know I love her and I'm going miss you .and just remember you are gone but will never be forgotten. So mom I love you and until we meet again

“ Prayer for the family. Her husband Joe was my cousin . I will say to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord. Prayer for all the family . God bless you with comfort and peace and know you are loved.
